Social and Emotional Aspects of Learning (SEAL)

Invitation to join Phase 4 (Primary)

Primary schools that have not already engaged with SEAL are able to participate in Phase 4, which will enable school staff to implement SEAL independently. There are 2 ways to access support that will help you launch and implement SEAL:

- 1) A briefing session to explore strategies for whole-school implementation of SEAL and to share good practice

Monday 16th June 2008, 1pm - 4pm, Royal Alexandra and Albert School, Reigate
(Gatton Park)

OR

Wednesday 18th June 2008, 1pm - 4pm, Loseley Park, Guildford (Tithe Barn)

- 2) Network meetings (2 per year, starting autumn 2008) to support the ongoing implementation of SEAL and to share good practice

Comments from schools already using SEAL

"The materials are extremely effective in eliciting good discussion with the children"

"SEAL has really helped to improve behaviour and communication between the pupils"

"Parents had a very positive reaction to the SEAL programme and meetings were well attended"

"Pupils had increased levels of emotional literacy and were more able to deal with difficult emotions such as anger and anxiety"

How SEAL could impact on key areas of school life:

- ◇ Academic achievement:
- ◇ Self-esteem
- ◇ Personal responsibility
- ◇ Tolerance of difference
- ◇ Workplace effectiveness
- ◇ Classroom/school behaviour
- ◇ Increased inclusion
- ◇ Improvements to mental health
